DESERT CIRCUS BIDS GOVERNORS

Nevada's Governor Grant Sawyer and Lieutenant Governor Rex Bell have been extended invitations by President Ed McCoubrey of the Desert Circus Association to be honor guests at the 25th annual Palm Springs Desert Circus, March 1 to 5.

The silver state of Nevada is to be saluted by this the silver anniversary Desert Circus. This honor is in line with the policy established in 1938 when the state of Texas was so honored, followed in 1959 by Colorado and in 1960 by Washington.

INVITATIONS HAVE also been extended to the Governors of these states, Price Daniel, Texas; Steve McNichols, Colorado and Albert Rosellini, Washington, to join in the silver anniversary festivities.

In the near future invitations will also be forwarded to the governors of the remaining states to join their fellow governors in Palm Springs for Desert Circus time.

For the first time this year the Circus dates have been moved forward to the first week in March. This was done to accommodate the many desert visitors who terminate their winter holidays before mid-April which was previously Desert Circus time.

MANY EVENTS are now being established by the Circus Association.

First to be announced is the famed Desert Circus Parade to take place March 4. This parade

'PIRATE' CHIEF LANDS 620 CAPTIVES IN BRAZIL PORT

PS Jewelry Theft Suspects Nabbed in NY

International Ring Of Thieves Captured By Gotham Police
Special to The Desert Sun
NEW YORK — International jewel thieves, who have operated in Palm Springs, Las Vegas, and Miami, have been taken into custody in New York, charged with the theft of $30,000 in jewels and $1,000 in cash from the hotel suite of President Kennedy's sister, Patricia, and her husband actor Peter Lawford.

Chief of Detectives John T. Walsh broke the wall of silence surrounding the 2-week-old robbery by announcing that three men and a woman from Toronto and Montreal were prime suspects in the case. They were being questioned at a police station in the Borough of Queens.

THE SUSPECTS WERE identified by police as Ronald Spears, 30, and Rosalind Wade, 23, Montreal, and William Livingston, 33, and David M. Ramsay, 33, Toronto.

Miss Wade's attorney, Herbert Strauss, said she could not be involved in the theft because she arrived in New York from Canada after it was committed.

The four already were being held in $10,000 bail each in a shoplifting case.

PALM SPRINGS Det. Lt. Robert White said he is dispatching a teletype to New York asking for additional information on the connection of the group with a list of unsolved Palm Springs burglaries.

Included in the unsolved thefts here are at least $180,000 in jewelry thefts during the 1960 season, White pointed out. He said that if necessary a member of the Palm Springs detective force would go to New York to interrogate the suspects.

IT WAS LEARNED that a diamond brooch was found by detectives in the suspects' apartment here last Sunday after the four were arrested on charges of stealing a lady's suit from a Fifth Avenue dress shop the previous day. The brooch was identified Tuesday as part of the Lawford loot.

Walsh said he believed the Canadians had help in gaining entrance to the 16th floor Savoy Hilton Hotel suite which the Lawfords had taken for the weekend after the inauguration Jan. 20.

The burglary was not made public until last weekend because the Lawfords did not want publicity.

PS AIRPORT TOPIC FOR MAYOR'S UNIT

The Mayor's Coordinating Council will hold its February luncheon meeting in the Oasis Hotel Friday, Mayor Frank M. Bogert announced.

City manager Dan Wagner told The Desert Sun that problems of the city - proposed airport purchase bonds will probably be reviewed again. No specific agenda has been prepared, but 87 local organizations have been advised of the meeting. The meeting is called to permit various organized groups to present current problems for city consideration.

JK PLUCKS CAMBRIDGE CAMPUS CLEAN

WASHINGTON — Dr. Abram Chayes, a Harvard University law professor named as State Department legal adviser, admits the Cambridge campus is feeling the impact of the Kennedy administration.

When Chayes appeared before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Tuesday, Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., asked him: "Are there any professors left up there?"

Chayes replied: "Old deans never die, they just lose their faculties."

RM Post Office Lease Program Now Completed

RANCHO MIRAGE — Postmaster Sidney F. Greenleaf was advised by telegram here Tuesday — the 10th anniversary of the establishment of this post office — that the construction and lease agreement for the new 3,840 square foot post office building on the southeast corner of Veldt and Mesquite here has been signed.

The telegram announcing the contract with the Rancho Mirage Realty Company of 2263 Mira Villa Drive, Hollywood, was sent by Congressman D. S. Saund (D-Calif. 29).

Occupancy for the new buildings is scheduled May 1 with a 10 year lease.

Features of the facility will include a 768 square foot exterior loading platform and 8,752 square foot of paved parking area, in addition to the 3,840 square foot building.

Kennedy Holds Finance Meeting

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy meets today with his chief financial advisers to put the finishing touches on recommendations he will send to Congress for spurring the nation's lagging economy.

Castro Foes Form, Plan Opposition

Kennedy Message Bolsters Hopes of Opposition Leaders

HAVANA — Foes of Premier Fidel Castro, heartened by President Kennedy's State of the Union speech, were said today to be planning to form a "coalition government" in the mountains of central Cuba.

Informed sources said anti-Castro leaders were confident the militiamen who have been cordoning off rebel positions in the Escambray Mountains for weeks would never be able to dislodge them from their mountain strongholds.

TRAVELERS FROM central Cuba said skirmishes between the militia and the rebels occur almost nightly, but reliable sources said Castroite forces were making no effort to advance into the mountains.

Official secrecy veiled details of casualties inflicted by the nightly clashes.

Government authorities have been moving militiamen into the Escambray area from all over Cuba, and there have been recurrent reports that a government offensive was imminent.

THERE HAVE BEEN some indications that the government is having trouble with its own forces.

Travelers arriving here said few of the soldiers seen in the streets of towns in the central province of Las Villas carry arms, suggesting that the Castroites are placing most of their dependence on the militia — perhaps because they are more certain of its loyalty than that of the army.

New regulations requiring Cubans employed at the U. S. Navy's special Guantanamo base to carry special police passes went into effect Tuesday.

FIRST "YELLOW BOOK" DIRECTORY was delivered yesterday to Mrs. William Powell by publisher Joe Jackson. ## CITY DIRECTORIES MAKE '61 DEBUT

Palm Springs "Yellow Book" Directory is making its debut this week with a record 16,638 listings, Joe Jackson, publisher of Western Directory Company, reported.

Weather

Desert area forecast: Mostly sunny today and Thursday. Little change in temperatures. High today 60-70 upper valleys, 70-80 lower valleys. Yesterday's high, 74, low, 41.

The 16,638 listings is 636 more than in 1960, and represents a total of 1,050 more persons.

Reflecting population by the listings and families, Jackson estimated 18,656 were residing within the city limits, and 8,647 in adjacent county area.

The directory marked a couple of firsts this year:

— The first time locally printed, by Desert Magazine in Palm Desert.

— The first time it has had an "X" classification listing.

Scientists Greet Return of Chimp

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. — Ham the happy space chimp returned to the United States today from a 420-mile rocket trip to help scientists find out whether space is safe for people.

The 3½-year-old chimpanzee arrived at Patrick Air Force Base aboard an Air Force C131 plane which had brought him 170 miles from Grand Bahama Island.

Rebels Offered Asylum

RECIFE, Brazil — Rebel leader Henrique Galvao sailed the captured cruise ship Santa Maria into Recife Harbor today to discharge the 620 captive passengers, touching off street demonstrations for and against the Portuguese government.

GALVAO HAD HALTED at the entrance to the harbor this morning until President Janio Quadros offered political asylum to him and his band of 70 rebels who seized the ship Jan. 22. Then when high tide arrived he began moving toward the quay.

Heavy police patrols were placed around Dock 4 where Galvao was to tie up to discharge the passengers, some of whom have wandered the high seas in the Portuguese luxury liner since they sailed from Lisbon last Jan. 3.

UPI CORRESPONDENT Almeida Edson reported from the port area that the Santa Maria was in front of Dock 4 by early afternoon. The docking process was expected to take some time, and it was not certain when the first passengers would come ashore.

The harbor area was a scene of great confusion with crowds milling through the area demonstrating for Galvao, who seized the ship in an effort to overthrow the government of Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar. Counter demonstrations started immediately.

Though President Quadros offered political asylum to the Galvao rebels the fate of the $16.8 million ship remained in doubt. Portugal demanded that Brazil seize it and return it to its owners. Galvao has said he would never give it back.

QUADROS' MESSAGE WAS interpreted in some sections as recognition of a state of belligerency between the Galvao group and the Portuguese government — a far lesser charge than those of piracy and murder made earlier by Portugal.

International law would permit a belligerent vessel to spend 24 hours in port to load supplies while those aboard wanting asylum could get it. But Quadros was still silent on whether he would seize the ship. He was still in conference with his foreign minister.

HE HAD SPENT THE night in the "commodore's quarters" aboard the Donner, a landing ship dock LSD, which carried him from his landing place in the Atlantic to Grand Bahama.

For the next two days he will undergo even more rigorous examination to determine whether he suffered any physical or emotional injury at all.

tion, covers a total of twelve acres, and as it is further developed, the golf facility will be pushed back to the edge of the property line.

Irwin Schuman, in making the announcement, said that the Riviera will "keep pace with the ever-expanding desert area, and will not announce any program of expansion until plans are complete and work is actually underway."

A strong supporter of the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority, Schuman expects the construction of the arial tramway will more than triple the present need for hotel accommodations in the resort area.

The new addition will bring the total number of rooms at the hotel to 378.

Hawaii Jet Start Asked By Western

CAB Gets Request Of Airline for Start on Route

WASHINGTON (U) — Western Airlines has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board for permission to begin jet service between Hawaii and the California cities of San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

The route was awarded to Western as part of the CAB's recent decision in the transpacific route case, but the board delayed putting the domestic order into effect. President Eisenhower, shortly before he left office, disapproved the major international phases of the complex case.

WESTERN MAINTAINED that the CAB had "no discretion" in the matter once it made its decision on the mainland-Hawaii route. The airline contended that "the law required issuing the certificate if it (the CAB) finds such transportation is required by the public convenience and necessity."

"Clearly it would be contrary to the public interest for the board to allow any unnecessary procedural delay in the inauguration of new and improved California-Hawaii service which the entire board has found is required by the public convenience and necessity," Western said.

On Eisenhower's suggestion that the CAB reconsider its decision on Western, the airline said it was "convinced that upon reconsideration the board will find there is no merit to the President's suggestion and, therefore, will reaffirm its route award to Western."

WESTERN SAID THAT until a "final" order is given, board rules do not permit any action on petitions from other airlines to reconsider the decision.

The airline maintained that by issuing a final order on the domestic phases of the case, the board could return to "normal" procedural channels and allow Hawaiian, continental, and U. S. overseas airlines to petition for reconsideration.

SENOR EISENHOWER?

La Quintans Irate Over Street Change

A telegram protesting the proposed changed name of Avenida Serra in La Quinta was received by the board of supervisors this week and filed for consideration at the hearing scheduled for Feb. 14 at 10 a.m.

The telegram, from Captain L. S. Adams, Fred N. Williams, Leslie Keely, Jack Breen "and others," said many property owners resent any change in the established procedure of naming streets at La Quinta for notable Mexicans and Spaniards.

"THIS IS PARTICULARLY true," they said, "in the case of Father Serra who did so much for California in its early days."

The La Quinta Chamber of Commerce board of directors was taken to task by the senders of the telegram for endorsing the proposal of Elkee Corporation, subdividers, that the name of Avenida Serra be changed to Eisenhower Drive.

"THE OFFICERS OF the La Quinta Chamber of Commerce can express their opinions only and cannot legally under the by-laws represent the opinion of the majority of property owners," stated the telegram. "This is a matter that should not be acted upon without a referendum of all property owners."

Time to Watch Your Pocketbook

One of the least entertaining and most costly forms of amusement which hits this resort area each season is that put out by the out-of-town advertising spiel men. They arrive in droves each winter, attracted not so much by the weather but by the promotional dollars which flow so easily. They are an annual plague, about as devastatingly helpful as the locust.

At latest count, seven new publications have sprung up or are ready to spring up on your dollars in the past two months. Each has its glib salesmen and each the same reason, ostensibly. Each will earn its way in the community by serving—serving the hotels, the dress shops, the nite spots or, more bombastically, serving everybody.

Advertising rates are what the traffic will bear and vary from 30 cents in the less pretentious efforts to $800 a page in the slicks.

Some operate out of a small office, most out of their hats. But all are alike in these essentials.

1. They bring or build no business for the advertiser.
2. They channel working dollars out of town.
3. They make no investment to back their mouths with their money.

The whole thing's like the old medicine-man pitchman who moved from town to town at county fair time—exchanged his colored water for the yokel's dollars and moved on.

In this day and age, advertising is a science and an advertising dollar a tool, not a donation. Surely it would seem simple business good sense to keep that tool sharp and functional and to use it precisely for its proper role—to make business grow.

Keep your eye on your pocketbook. It's that time again!

When the Kissing

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Marital and political honeymoons, not excluding President Kennedy's, usually end from routine causes, such as:

Here Come The In-laws: Although the major appointments have gone to earnest, intelligent fellows with a will to set the world aright, there is a certain proportion of straight political pay-off which lowers both the quality and the purpose of the Kennedy Administration.

I AM ONE WHO believes that Robert Kennedy, the Attorney General, backed up by Professor Archie Cox as Solicitor General and Byron "Whizzer" White as Deputy Attorney General, is going to do all right — and probably better than all right. But at the 11th hour before inauguration, the President brought a couple of defeated Democratic Governors, Loveless of Iowa as Director of the Export-Import Bank and Docking of Kansas as a member of the Federal Renegotiation Board.

These appointments were much like the good-natured bridegroom bringing home a couple of down-on-their-luck, free-loading kinsmen. It is the sort of thing that never makes for domestic felicity.

INDEED, THE list of lame duck appointments is fairly impressive to date — and the end is not yet in sight. There are ex-Governor Freeman of Minnesota as Secretary of Agriculture, ex-Congressman McGovern of South Dakota as Food for Peace Administrator, defeated gubernatorial candidate Boutin of New Hampshire as Deputy Director of General Services Administration, ex-Congressman Quigley of Pennsylvania as Assistant Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

You'd have to call this quite a crown of poor relatives who have settled down in the Administration household, at the taxpayers' expense. It will be most unusual if they don't cause discord between the President and other members of the huge governmental family.

EATING CRACKERS In Bed: It is always difficult for newlyweds to change old habits. I don't see how C. Douglas Dillon, an Eisenhower Republican, is going to get along very well in this Democratic Cabinet. His confirmation hearing before the Senate Finance Committee was polite and seemingly desultory — unless you paid close attention and later, as I did, read the transcript.

The hearing proved to me that Republicans resent Dillon's turncoat performance, while Democrats regard him as an interloper. For example, Senator Williams (R) dryly read the Secretary-designate some lurid passages from the Democratic National Platform ("high interest rates . . . tight money") and asked if he agreed with this GOP-damning language.

SENATOR GORE (D) poked at Dillon with questions as to how the new Secretary, who tolerated tax loopholes and other favors to business under the Eisenhower Administration, was going to reverse himself in the Kennedy Administration.

Period Of Adjustment: All new lyweds must arbitrate their differences by a policy of give-and-take. This will be most difficult for the Kennedy Administration with its differences of viewpoint.

WHEN SECRETARY of State Rusk was being interviewed by the Foreign Relations Committee, he assented to a hint by one Senator who wanted to give surplus food to the hungry peasants and workers of Red China. When the questioning became the turn of Senator Lausche (D) of Ohio, his voice quaked as he discussed the folly of substituting American food for Mao's big problem of feeding his revolutionized country.

This conflict of philosophy — feeding the hungry vs. waging the cold war — is not academic. It is basic within the Kennedy Administration and among Democrats. The President himself, as a Senator, led the fight to extend foreign aid to Poland and other East European satellites of Russia.

These are some of the hum-drum and fundamental things which will prevent the Kennedy regime from being love's young dream for very long. The whole country, while wishing him well, must expect him to take the rough sailing as well as the smooth.

Hope for Inspiration

WASHINGTON — Inspiration, which usually is out to lunch when you go looking for it, can accidentally hit a person at peculiar times in unlikely places.

Take the case of Knute Rockne the football coach who won enduring fame by inventing the Notre Dame shift.

Rockne probably spent countless hours in the locker room concentrating on gridiron maneuvers. But I seem to recall reading that the idea of the shift came to him while he was watching a line of chorus girls.

THEN THERE IS the classic case of Archimedes, or some such ancient Greek, who was seized by inspiration while taking a bath and rushed into the street shouting "Eureka."

History, in short, is replete with examples showing that inspiration is about as unpredictable as a commuter train and often arrives under incongruous circumstances.

If any further evidence is needed to prove this point, I refer you to a newsletter sent out by Rep. Frank Thompson (D-N.J.), concerning last Friday's inauguration ceremony.

that you were, as Thompson says in the newsletter, "enchanted by him and delighted by his calm when the glare of the sun prevented him from reading the preface to his poem."

That being the case, you perhaps will be interested in a footnote provided in the newsletter.

SHORTLY BEFORE the ceremony, Thompson's wife Evie was introduced to Frost in the congressional office formerly occupied by Interior Secretary Stewart Udall, a friend of the poet.

Mrs. Thompson was startled to learn that at that moment "the great old man was in the very middle of working on the dedicatory section of his poem," which he was scheduled to read in just 30 minutes.

"Mr. Frost told Evie he had refused many offers to write dedicatory or occasional poems because he writes only when inspired to do so," the newsletter continues.

BUT ON THE morning of the inauguration, inspiration struck. Mr. Frost sat down amidst the confusion of the Udall office and wrote 42 lines of immaculately rhymed verse.

I, for one, am grateful to Thompson for the belated fill-in on this inaugural sidelight. If a poet can be hit by inspiration in the House Office building, there is hope for us all.

It tops, I submit, what happened to Rockne and Archimedes

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How you guide us from so far.

I never had much truck with astrology but I'm beginning to waver. Here's how it happened.

WHEN JUST A CUB too many years ago, starting out trying to be a newspaperman, a kindly old editor told me:

"Get a vocabulary. Take a dictionary, start with A, find a word there that you can use. Next day, B, then C and so on. When you get to Z start over."

Well, I've been doing that more or less faithfully ever since.

And today I was down to Z again.

THUMBING the book looking for a workable every day word starting with Z (I didn't have too many) I came to Zodiak. And there was a picture of all of the objects in a circle.

Being the curious type, I forgot the Z hunt and started scoffing at the idea that the light of the stars, which started for earth thousands of years ago, could affect us today.

THEN I FOUND I was an Aries. Looking that up I learned it meant a Ram. Must be something to that, I thought. A ram goes around butting blindly, sometimes a stone wall. That's me.

Then the sign right in front was Pisces — fish. Behind it, Taurus, bull.

That did it.

A POOR FISH goes butting around tossing the Taurus. And so he becomes a newspaperman.

Further study revealed that after you make like a rodeo cowboy and flatten the bull, a few weeks later you run into Capricornus. That, I find, means goat.

That was a natural. When people don't like what's in the story about themselves, the newsman is the goat.

SO NOW I am beginning to believe what it says in that Astrological Forecast some daily newspapers run.

Will heed the advice which I always before pooh-poohed diligently.

Like a few days ago I sneered at it when it said under Aries: "A good day for a risk to turn out propitiously."

HOW CAN a far-away constellation which first beamed its light on me away back in B. C., affect me today?

That was my scornful surmise, at any rate.

And that was the day Anisado, I. Valenzuela, came in and paid $57.40 for $2.

I had looked longingly at the name in the program then decided it was too great a risk.

Perhaps there is something to this Astrology racket, after all.

Starlight, star bright,
What do I see tonight?
Form 1040.

STAN DELAPLANE:

Fixed for Blades?

Up and to the shower, singing "The Night Before They Stretched O'Leary."

On days like this I am very free with the after-shave lotion.

(My after-shave lotion—it was given to me at Christmas — is called "Russian Leather." Why should anyone want to smell like Russian leather? This is a question I do not intend to ask myself. I am bugged by enough problems.

ANYWAY, I AM expansive with the after-shave lotion. It reminds me of haircuts when I was a youth. In those days, you did not feel you had been cut unless you came out so they could smell you a block away.

Barbers used powerful hair tonics in those golden, odoriferous days.

In the next ten years, the American male will use as many cosmetics as the female.

THAT IS A PREDICTION by Dr. Glen J. Sperandio. Dr. Sperandio is professor of pharmacy at Purdue University. It is his business to think about things like that. So he does.

I must say the Dr. sounds like an experimental cuss — we have to take that into consideration. He and his assistants think cosmetics should be good enough to be eaten.

They made an anti-chapping lotion of tapioca. And they fixed up a liquid makeup out of chocolate syrup and mashed potatoes.

ABOUT THIS COSMETICS for men though, I assume he means we will all be in pancake and lipstick within ten years.

That is pretty close. So I gave it a good deal of thought. (They will never get me into chocolate syrup and mashed potatoes, however.)

IT SEEMS QUITE possible—I do not look forward to such changes but am willing to go along with the tide.

A good many changes have been made in women's cosmetics. Grandma said any woman who used paint on her face was no better than she should be. But in later years, she used a touch of rouge. (And whatever happened to that word?)

THIS WILL INVOLVE a tremendous change in men's clothing. That is the major problem as I see it.

It will involve a number of extra pockets for one thing.

At present man has just enough pockets: A pocket in which the lady can stow her compact. "Would you mind carrying this for me? I simply haven't a pocket in this dress."

(THE LADY IS carrying a purse the size of a bank robber's satchel. But men's pockets take the strain.)

Then we have a pocket for her cigarettes. "Would you mind slipping these cigarettes in your pocket? I hate to ask you but you know I only smoke Wheelies and your brand is so strong."

WE ARE ALSO equipped with pockets that just fit her fountain pen. Pockets that are filing cabinets for grocery bills — "Just hold this until we get home, will you?" Well, you aren't going to hold it in your teeth. Into the filing cabinet pocket.

(It then gets sent to the cleaners. And who is to blame? Ah, but you are making intelligent answers today. Thank you.)

AS I ADD THEM up, men have nine excellent pockets for storing goodies. Most of them filled with her bills, car keys, cigarettes and cosmetics.

Now we must carry our own lipstick in addition.

Le the Dr. work on his mashed-potatoes-chocolate-syrup and think about that.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: A while back you started a campaign to get rid of the sack dress. How about a campaign to get rid of those horrible pointed shoes?

I have held out buying shoes for a year and my feet are almost back to normal again. There are just no comfortable, good-looking shoes to be had anymore. Even elderly women are hobbling around in those ridiculous pointed-toed, spindly-heeled shoes. And the steel tips are ruining everybody's linoleum and carpets! Gosh, Abby, can't you do something about it?

FOOTSORE AND WEARY

DEAR F. AND W.: I am told the women "love" the new pointed shoes. (Yes, and even the spindly heels that ruin the floor covering!) I may be a heel—but I am not sold!

DEAR ABBY: Some neighbors of ours were very friendly at first. Then all of a sudden they stopped coming to see us, so I went over there one night to see what was wrong.

Through the window I could see her and her husband sitting there watching television. But I couldn't get in because the screen door was latched. I wrote her a letter telling her I thought it was insulting to lock up a house as tight as a bank so people couldn't even get up on the porch to ring the bell. She ignored my letter. Don't you think there is something wrong with people who lock themselves in?

FRIENDLY NEIGHBOR

DEAR FRIENDLY: Folks rarely lock themselves in — but they frequently lock others out. Latch on to some friendly neighbors.

* DEAR ABBY: My best girlfriend's husband is the type who "loves his wife but oh, you kid!" He tells her he has to work late, go to a meeting, etc., and in the meantime he is running around with other women. She is a wonderful person. They have two small children. Do you think it's my place to tell her? This has been going on for four about four years. They have been married for five.

A VERY GOOD FRIEND
DEAR FRIEND: If you are truly "a very good friend" . . . tell HIM, not her.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "TROUBLED TEEN": It's nice to be important, but it's more important to be nice.

"What's your problem?" For a personal reply from Abby, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

CATHOLICS IN AMERICA—PART II

For Catholics, Just One Church

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International
Roman Catholics never speak of "our denomination" and rarely of "our church."

They call it "the church." The distinction is more than semantic. To a Catholic, the worldwide religious organization of 500 million members which has its headquarters in Rome is not simply one of many branches of the Christian Church.

IT IS THE "one true church"—the only institution in the world which can authentically and authoritatively proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Catholics are well aware that this claim is regarded by non-Catholics as arrogant, and as a major stumbling block to Christian unity. But they cannot readily surrender or compromise it, because it is directly related to the dogma of infallibility, which is the keystone of all Catholic doctrine.

Catholics believe that Christ commissioned His apostles to establish a church, which was to be not merely a spiritual fellowship of like-minded people but a visible, unified organization with definite rules, prescribed beliefs and a hierarchical system of government.

THEY BELIEVE THAT authority over the church was vested in the apostles, and has passed down to their successors, the bishops. And they believe that supreme authority was vested in St. Peter, and has passed down to each man who has succeeded him as bishop of Rome, or Pope.

Since Jesus was fully aware of the weakness of the human beings to whom He entrusted His message, Catholics believe, He took special steps to make sure that they could not lead the church astray. He clothed the apostles (and their successors) with a divine protection which makes it impossible for them to err when they undertake to define the context of the Christian revelation. That is what Catholics mean by "infallibility."

IT SHOULD BE noted that the "infallible teaching authority" is regarded as being lodged primarily in the church rather than in the Pope as an individual. During the first 19 centuries of the church's history, the basic dogmas which Catholics consider infallibly true were proclaimed jointly by all of the bishops assembled in an ecumenical worldwide council, such as the one which will meet in Rome in 1962.

The last ecumenical council met at the Vatican in 1870. It resulted in a dogma declaring that the Pope alone could make infallible pronouncements under certain circumstances.

The circumstances are these: the pronouncement must deal with a matter of faith or morals (not political or social beliefs or anything else of that kind); and the Pope must make clear that he is speaking to the whole church "ex cathedra"—that is, "from the chair" of St. Peter.

THIS POWER HAS been used very sparingly by the popes. Only once in the past 91 years has a Pope undertaken to define, ex cathedra, an article of Catholic faith. That was in 1950, when Pope Pius XII proclaimed as a dogma the longheld Catholic belief that the Virgin Mary was bodily assumed into heaven at the end of her life on earth.

Are "non-infallible" papal pronouncements, such as those found in encyclicals, binding on a devout Catholic?

There is much confusion on this point, among Catholics as well as non-Catholics.

SOME CATHOLICS look upon a papal encyclical as a piece of fatherly advice which can be heeded or ignored. Some non-Catholics quote from the encyclicals of long-dead popes as though every word of them were current and special steps to make sure that they could not lead the church astray.

The truth is somewhere between these extremes. A Catholic who is both devoted and well-instructed will try to give "positive assent" to all of the religious and moral teachings of the church, and will be particularly respectful of papal encyclicals, even though he does not regard his acceptance of them as absolutely mandatory.

When a priest or bishop—or, for that matter, the Pope—goes clearly outside the realm of faith and morals, and offers advice on a political issue, Catholics know they are free to spurn his guidance. Their readiness to do just that was demonstrated in the recent Puerto Rican elections.

NON-CATHOLICS are inclined to feel that the authoritative nature of the Catholic Church—symbolized by the dogma of infallibility—subjects Catholics to "thought control" and deprives them of freedom of conscience. To Catholics, however, it is a comforting assurance. Instead of trying to think through every religious question for himself on the basis of his own understanding and insight, as many Protestants and Jews feel compelled to do, a Catholic can embrace the entire body of his church's doctrine by a single act of faith, in which he accepts the church as a divinely established institution "incapable of teaching error."

What role does the Bible play in Catholic teaching? This question is often asked by Protestants who regard Holy Scripture as the only authoritative source of Christian doctrine.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH holds that the Bible is the divinely inspired word of God—a definition that would satisfy even a fundamentalist Protestant. But it also holds that the church preceded and produced the New Testament, and that the scriptures can be properly understood only when explained and interpreted by the church. "Private interpretation" of the Bible—a basic principle of Protestantism—is strictly forbidden in the Catholic Church. Catholics also believe that there are many authentic truths of the Christian revelation which were not recorded in the Bible, but have been handed down by word of mouth for centuries. This verbal "tradition" is considered to be a valid source of doctrine alongside the Bible. Many Catholic beliefs about the Virgin Mary are based on tradition rather than scripture.

Ranch Club Brunches Just Can't Be Topped

By GEORGE LAINE

They ought to give the Ranch Club's regular Sunday brunches the sub-title of "Can You Top This?"

No sooner did I say — a couple of weeks past — that I had seen the end-all for daytime casuals in this town than did the gang over at the club promptly get another one together that made me look like I'd been reviewing end-of-semester productions in the fourth grade.

THE FINALE FOR Sunday's show would have cost about $15,000 on a one-shot gig had some promoter been nutty enough to try and put it together. That's the kind of class that runs through the Ranch Club's brunch sessions.

It started out calmly enough, with the Wally Harpst Trio playing some things just to let the people know they were around. Joe Spata followed, with much the same type of thing and then Emcee Joe Kirk hit the stage.

He brought on Jeri Sullivan who sounds even better sober (me sober, not her) than otherwise. Jeri left some mighty indignant brunchers open-mouthed when she sang just two tunes, then left the stage.

THE THING THAT makes the Ranch Club brunches so spectacular is the fact that you never know who'll drop in and wind up on the stage.

Take Sunday for instance. After Stewart Taylor (You may not like Bobalu, but you'll have to admit he has good taste in purses) and Duke Mitchell had finished their clowding around, Pepe Callahan showed up for what may have been his last appearance for a while in Palm Springs. Pepe is heading for Arizona and a Desilu pic with Maureen O'Hara and Brian Keith. Pepe sang his head off and made it tough for Clessa Williams, who followed him.

Then came a sort of catch-as-catch-can thing with Joe Kirk and Duke Mitchell in a Castro skit abetted by your reporter. After that, Billy Snyder showed everyone he was still in rare form.

YOU WOULDN'T believe what happened next (which is the reason I took a picture of it — see top of the page).

Onto the Ranch Club stage poured everyone in sight. There was Blake Edwards, Duke Mitchell, Clessa Williams, Freddy Otash, Pepe Callahan, Billy Snyder, Dennis and Lindsay Crosby, Joe Kirk, Joe Spata and the Wally Harpst Trio plus Bob Sims.

"Everyone's up there but Art Robinson," quipped George Shaw, standing in the wings with Jan Ogden and Penne O'Mara. And he was right.

NOT ONLY ARE the brunches a great place to spot the best talent in our town, they are also the best spot to see local and visiting celebrities.

On hand Sunday were Mary Neal from the Dunes, Al and Elsie Demaret who are guests of Hoagy Carmichael out at T-Bird, Liz Whitney Tippet and her husband, Col. E. J. Tippet, sportscaster Bob Kelly, the voice of the L.A. Rams, Jerry Penrith and ever so many others.

I think I've got it pegged why Robinson wasn't onstage for the finale. He was simply too busy taking reservations for this Sunday's brunch. (And, brother, you need 'em.)

—George Laine.

AFTER THE BRUNCH, Ranch Club owner Noel Clarke got together with Lindsay and Dennis Crosby and their wives to talk about the day's program. Left to right, outside the Ranch Club's Corral Room, are Lindsay, Barbara, Pat and Dennis Crosby with Clarke. The Crosbys were minus one brother—Phil—but still joined in the brunch fun. ### NEW DEEP WELL PLAY

'Fleecing' Has Fast Finish

In a manner reminiscent of the U. S. Navy's slow start in World War II, "The Golden Fleecing" started slowly in its opening at Ferrall's Playhouse in Deep Well last night.

But, again like the Navy in that infernal inferno, the satire finished like a champion.

LORENZO SEMPLE, JR., has constructed an implausible tale of three Naval lieutenants who utilize the electronic computers aboard their missile ship to provide winning combinations for beating the roulette wheel in Venice. (Maybe it's not as implausible as it seemed last night, but I doubt it.)

The story hurls a yeoman task at the cast; they've got to be so hilarious that the inadequacies of Mr. Semple's work are relegated to inconspicuousness.

In act I last night, they simply couldn't manage it. (The error of elongated first acts is a common one and one with which few producers-directors seem willing to take any corrective measures. Mike Ferrall would have been well within his rights to have attacked the first act of "Fleecing" with scissor, ax or cigarette lighter.)

THE LAST TWO acts, on the other hand, moved brightly and quickly.

This was due, largely, to a happy combination of John Newton's droll good humor, Carol Daniels' appealing appearance and way with words, and with some other subordinate dramatic workings.

Newton, to me, is almost a master at the underplayed line, a great many of which he dealt to the first night audience last night. Using Steve Camp and Robert Mimford as foils for his lines, Newton rode roughshod through the second and third acts. (In Act I, the Semple plot - laying forbade any such breezy flights.)

MICHAEL FERRALL, who cast himself as the heavyhanded admiral and then proceeded to live the role onstage, was quite believable and so was Betty Ebeft, cast as Mimford's girlfriend.

There was a steady barrage of quotable lines in Act II and Act III, most of which I've forgotten at this point. But they make for a speedy, happy, moving play that ends, as noted above, a great deal better than it begins.

George Flowers and Everett Fisch also registered nicely in support.

I'll bet there'll be a little working over at the Playhouse on that first act today. If they put this dreadnaught into dry dock, scrape the barnacles off Act I and recommission the vessel, they could have a 3-act victory that would be almost as satisfying as the Battle of the Philippine Sea. Let's hope.

Tittle Said Headed for Rams

Another Old Pro On Block

SAN FRANCISCO (U) — There's talk that the San Francisco Forty Niners may trade quarterback Y. A. Tittle to the Los Angeles Rams and the "Bald Eagle" isn't sure whether he would go for it.

"I just don't know what I'd do if I were traded," the 34-year-old Louisianan drawled today. "I've been away on vacation and just began reading in the papers about how I might figure in a deal. I just haven't taken much time to decide what I'd do, although I think I have another season left in me. I take 'em one at a time now."

Tittle, who is in the insurance business, added that he is confronted with "loads of paper work" which makes it even harder at the moment for him to pay much attention to football.

Local sportswriters are speculating that Tittle's name will be tossed into the "out" tray along with linebacker Ed Henke, and Clyde Conner and lineman Bruce Bosley.

HUGH McELHENNY is long gone, having been drafted by the Minnesota Vikings last week along with two other Forty Niners whom the club put onto the National League's available list to beef up the new franchise.

McElhenney indicated that he was little used in the backfield last season because of a "personality clash." He wouldn't elaborate but the typewriter-whackers think it indicates a falling out with coach Red Hickey.

Henke, in letters written to two local papers, came right and said that he wanted to be traded.

"I have been very unhappy the past two local papers, came right and said that he wanted to be traded."

"I HAVE BEEN very unhappy the past two seasons and desire to finish out my playing career under different circumstances," penned the veteran linebacker.

Bosley, who was on the verge of quitting the club two years ago to run a muscle emporium, and Conner also have indicated they would oppose being traded.

Vic Morabito, president of the Forty Niners, blasted the malcontents on Monday, saying "... I strongly resent what I know is an unjust reflection on Hickey's ability as a coach."

HICKEY, a tough-minded fundamentalist who recently signed a three-year contract with the club when his old one still had a season to go, has said that he expects a good 1961 campaign even if there is some discontent among certain players.

The Vikings plucked McElhenney, center Karl Rubke and linebacker Clancy Osborne from a list of eight men which the club made available. The other five remain a secret. Just as much a secret now as what Tittle would do if told to play elsewhere.

Pistons Put End To Lakers' Win Streak, 121-112

NEW YORK (U) — The Los Angeles Lakers failed to collect their fifth straight victory Tuesday night, losing to the Detroit Pistons 121-112 in the first game of a National Basketball Association double-header.

Syracuse beat New York 122-106 in the feature game at Madison Square Garden.

Coach Fred Schaus' Lakers had won four straight, all at the Sports Arena in Los Angeles, prior to the loss. Two of those four victories were against the Pistons.

Elgin Baylor put on a great scoring performance, 47 points on 20 field goals and seven free throws, but it wasn't enough to keep Los Angeles ahead.

Gene Shue led Detroit in scoring 26 points.

The Lakers rest tonight and play St. Louis' Western Division-leading Hawks Thursday night in a twin bill at Syracuse.

Seventh Straight Victory Scored By Captain Fair

ARCADIA (U) — Captain Fair was the latest toast of western racing fans today as he rode the crest of a streak of seven stakes victories, but experts on thoroughbred bloodlines still debated whether he can go a derby distance of better than a mile.

The 3-year-old son of Fair Truckle raced to a head victory Tuesday in the $22,850 San Vincente Handicap at Santa Anita, outgunning Olden Times in the stretch run of the 7-furlong race.

Captain Fair raced the distance in 1:22 2-5, just two-fifths of a second off the stakes record. Olden Times had been installed the favorite and Captain Fair returned $8.80, $3.40 and $2.60 across the board. Wire Us was third.

Today's racing program featured the $10,000 American Red Cross Purse for fillies and mares at 1 1-16 miles and drew a field of eight that included Queen America, Long Ears, Narva, Foreve-et and Miss Fecamo.

Angels Sign 2 More Talent Scouts Today

General manager Fred Haney of the new Los Angeles American League club which will arrive here Feb. 25 for spring training had signed two more scouts for their first season.

He said that Frank T. Fahey of St. Paul, Minn., and Sammy Moses of Yazoo City, Miss., have been signed by farm director Roland Remond of the Angels procurement system.

Veteran scout Tom Downey had been signed last week and a working agreement was made with the Dallas-Ft. Worth Rangers of the Triple A American Association to give the procurement machine its first turn of the wheels.

Fahey, 63, signed Roger Maris, the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1960, for the Cleveland Indians and was also instrumental in the inking of Herb Score and Gordon Coleman. He has scouted for 18 years with the Cardinals, Milwaukee Braves and Indians and will be the head area talent-hunter for the states of

Play Under Way Today in 2nd Annual Classic

They started firing shots that will be heard around the world—on the sports pages, at least—at four Palm Springs country clubs this morning as the second annual $100,000 added (the added being a $50,000 award for a hole-in-one) Palm Springs Golf Classic got under way.

Play began at the first and tenth tees of Bermuda Dunes, Eldorado, Indian Wells and Thunderbird Country Clubs at 9 a. m. today in a 72-hole Pro-Am involving the leading figures in the professional golfers' ranks, the top amateurs and the cream of the entertainment crop.

THE TOURNAMENT, which has drawn 128 of the leading pros and 384 amateurs including stars of the entertainment world, will run through Saturday as a Pro-Am, with 32 foursomes alternating on the four courses.

The amateurs will remain in the same teams but will be teamed with a new pro each day. They will play all four courses.

THEN, ON SUNDAY the 60 low pros and ties, will complete the 90-hole event, longest tourney on the circuit, at Tamarisk Country Club. In the event of a deadlock, there will be no sudden death play-off.

Instead those in the tie will go 18 holes on Monday at Tamarisk. Saturday's, Sunday's and, if necessary, Monday's, play will be televised nationally by CBS.

THE DOUBLE tee offs, from the first and tenth tee at each course, were arranged to speed up the play because of the large field. Milt Hicks, tournament chairman, also arranged another innovation for the second Classic, the switching of pros with each amateur team the first four days.

In this way, each team plays with four different pros.

ENTRIES include Arnold Palmer, defending champion and 1960 U. S. Open winner; Crosby Clambake winner, Bob Rosburg; Gary Player, San Francisco International winner last weekend; L. A. Open winner, Bob Goalby; San Diego Open runner-up to Palmer, Al Balding; Ted Kroll, close up in all of these events; long-hitting George Bayer; PGA champion Jay Hebert and brother Lionel; Ken Venturi, Bill Casper, Jerry Barber, Bug Holscher, Al Geiberger, Eric Monti and all of the other top names in golfdom.

ALL OF THE desert area pros, Ed Vines, Bermuda Dunes; Walter Burkemo, Eldorado; Eddie Susalla, Indian Wells; Claude Harmon, Thunderbird; Elly Vines, Tamarisk; George Howard, O'Donnell; Zell Eaton, Ron Nicol and George Wolfe, Palm Springs Municipal Course; Dale Andreason, Riviera; Richard Goeckner, La Quinta; Bob Pinnell, Shadow Mountain; Joe Caldwell, Ranch Club, are in the play.

In the Pro-Am teams some of the leading names in the entertainment world, Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Phil Harris among others, are entered.

TAMARISK Country Club where the finals will be played Sunday is headquarters for the tournament and a press room has been established there.

Bruins Gaining on Troy in Basketball

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—There's no more intense college feud in the country than the rivalry between UCLA and Southern California, the universities whose top-ranked basketball teams meet Friday and Saturday in the Sports Arena.

The Trojans lead in cage victories over the years 73-46, but Coach Johnny Wooden of the Bruins has started to turn the tide the other way in his 12-year tenure. Since Wooden took over the UCLA basketball coaching duties, the Bruins have beaten SC 27 times and lost 14.

Sports Notes from Palm Springs

By HAL WOOD

United Press International

Some quotes and a few notes while awaiting the start of the second annual Palm Springs Golf Classic here in Palm Springs.

Here's how to make money at a golf tournament:

Here in the land of plenty, promoters of the Desert Classic Golf Tournament charged amateurs a $200 entry fee each to play with the professionals for four days.

A total of 384 were accepted to compete—meaning that the tournament picked up $76,800 right there. Did they have a hard time finding 384 men with $200 each? Nope, in fact they had to return $37,400 to men who wanted to get in.

And how are you balancing the family budget these days?

Alvin Dark, new manager of the San Francisco Giants, is a man of his word.

More than a decade ago he was rooming with pitcher Larry Jansen when both were playing with the New York Giants. One night the two men were talking over the future.

"If I ever get to be manager of a major league club, Dark told Jansen, 'I'm going to hire you as my pitching coach.'"

True to his words, when Dark took over the San Francisco club this year one of his first moves was to pick Jansen as a coach.

Dark revealed the incident recently while telling the 1960 Giant pitching coach Bill Posedel, why he didn't hire him.

Sailor Bill, when not rehired by the Giants, immediately hooked on with the Cleveland Indians—where he will have one of his problem children from the Giants, Johnny Antonelli, as one of his students again.

Phil Rodgers, making his first start as a golf pro going for money, won $475 in the San Francisco

No-Hit Larson Takes Sharp Cut in Salary

United Press International

That was no cut Don Larsen took, it was more like an amputation and he has all the sympathy of Al Kaline, who seems reconciled to some surgery on his own salary, too.

The Kansas City A's cut Larsen almost to the bone with a near-maximum 24 per cent slice that whittled the "perfect game" pitcher's pay to an estimated $12,500 for 1961.

Kalime's slash with the Detroit Tigers won't be nearly as deep as Larsen's but it'll hurt anyway.

Lucky International Tournament.

This isn't exactly what Phil, a brash youngster from La Jolla, Calif., now in the Marines, expected.

Phil was only three shots off the lead, with only three men in front of him going into the final, rain-swept round.

He figured to make at least $1,000 if he finished among the first 17 places.

"But I'll do better than that," he said confidently as he strode to the first tee. He had dreams of making $9,000 for first place in his first tournament; or $4,600 for second place.

He shot a creditable 73-two over par—in the rain. But while he was doing that, 24 men swept past him in the mud in the race for the money.

At that, the $475 he got equals the pay he'll get for the six more months he still has ahead of him in the Marines.

A flock of National League quarterbacks are casting covetous eyes at a job with the Los Angeles Rams.

When the Rams announced they had traded Billy Wade, their No. 1 quarterback to the Chicago Bears, quarterback John Brodie of the San Francisco Forty Niners said:

"This means that either Y. A. Tittle or I will be traded to the Rams."

Morrison-O'Keefe Wedding Revealed

By ELLEN SAUNDERS

The marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Morrison of Los Angeles to David O'Keefe of Glendale was solemnized before 100 guests at the First Methodist Church in Glendale on Friday night. Miss Morrison, who is the daughter of Mrs. Aaron L. Eaton of Desert Hot Springs, was attended by her sister, Mrs. R. B. Jones of Inglewood, as matron of honor and her niece, Jennifer Knopf of Winnetka, Ill., as flower girl. David Yeutter, nephew of the bride was the ring bearer.

Miss Morrison, a former resident here and a graduate of Palm Springs High School, is a student of nursing at Los Angeles City College. Following a honeymoon in Santa Barbara, the young couple will be at home in Glendale.

Mrs. Mari Louise Cleaves of San Francisco has recently arrived here to make her home with her mother, Mrs. Helen Hatch. Mrs. Cleaves is an artist who is well-known to many local residents. She will maintain a studio at her home and will continue to paint her original trays which are sold exclusively by Blum's of San Francisco.

Lee Doran is receiving congratulations on the birth of his first great grandchild. It's a boy born Jan. 25 to Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Head of Long Beach.

Rev. Robert Bremgartner, a Navy chaplain attached to the Guantanamo Base in Cuba, who has been a houseguest of Rev. Herbert Cook, pastor of St. Elizabeth's for the past three weeks, returned to duty on Monday. Two other guests at the rectory, Rev. Arthur De. Crane, pastor of the Immaculate Conception Parish, Youngstown, Ohio; and Rev. William O'Neil of Christ Our King Parish, Warren, Ohio, will remain for a few more weeks.

The Hans Kleinjungs entertained at a small dinner party on Thursday night. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Don Hulbert, Mrs. Charles Meadows and the Phillip Roberts. Two Chicago couples, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Goldberg and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schwartz, recently arrived at the Palmer Lodge for a stay of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Crowl, of Rolling Prairie, Ind. — he's one of the largest fruit growers in that part of the country — and Mrs. Crowl's 82-year-old father, John Hancock, have arrived at the Broadview Lodge for a two-week vacation. The George Hellmers of Buffalo, N. Y., who just ended a weeks stay at the Broadview are now touring the state but have made reservations to spend the entire month of March here.

Miss Loretta Starr who suffered severe injuries in a fall sustained here two months ago, is recuperating at the Pasqual Sanatorium, 904 Mission Road, South Pasadena.

She misses her many friends and would enjoy hearing from them.

Two couples who have been long time friends celebrated their wedding anniversaries with dinner at Erickson's on Thursday night. The celebrants were Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Markell and their houseguests the Raymond Eberts of Pasadena.

Mrs. Ted Spellaza, chairman of the committee of Rotary-Ann's who are giving a box-lunch social at the B-Bar-H on Feb. 9, will entertain her committee at a luncheon to be given at her home on Thursday. Guests will include Mesdames Alan Horton, Earl Farmer, Harry Chester, Charles Starr, Don Hulbert, Charles Edson, Joe Kanva, James Pack and Walter Klocke.

Two friends who grew up together in Yokohama, Japan, were reunited here last week for the first time in 51 years. Alfred Collette of Kirkland, Wash., and A. W. S. Austen of this community said goodbye in 1909. Although they corresponded through the years they did not meet again until Collette and his wife Regina arrived here recently for a stay of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Robert and the Ted Spellazas dined at the Highlander Restaurant on Wednesday night before attending a performance at the Ferrall's Deep Well Playhouse.

Easterners who have just arrived at the Ma-Ha-Yah Lodge for a stay of several weeks include several New Yorkers, among them, Atty and Mrs. Morton Frederick, Mrs. Elizabeth Mandel of Far Rockaway, Long Island, Mrs. Pepy Bisicki and Mr. and Mrs. H. Greenstone of Brooklyn. Others who have exchanged snow for sun are Mrs. Rose Friedman of Cleveland, Ohio, the Ben Temsons of Patterson, N. J., and Albert I. Kega of Chicago, who is a professor of law at Northwestern University.

A Los Angeles foursome, the Dave Goldbergs, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Schenkman are also vacationing at the lodge and the H. H. Warners of Beverly Hills are back for one of their frequent visits.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Babin enjoyed the Crosby Brothers show at the Chi Chi on Thursday night as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sakin of Palm Springs.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Wright of Waldron, Ark., have just returned home after a weeks visit with Dr. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stone Wright, Sr. A family reunion held during their stay here was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Stone Wright, Jr., and the Eugene Wrights who motored in from Yuma, Ariz., for the occasion.

Around Town

... with Hildy Crawford

Setting a precedent for local charity affairs ... Palm Springs Pathfinders decided this week that their first annual black tie Dinner Dance ... which will be held at the Tennis Club on the evening of February 18 ... will give all the proceeds to charity ... with no deductions for costs ... which are being covered by donations ... Elegant decorations ... danceable music ... a special dinner ... and plenty of room ... have been promised for the affair ... which will be limited to 200 ... Observing "five golden years of working for Palm Springs youth" ... invitations went only to Pathfinders and associated members ...

Mrs. W. B. Malouf and Mrs. Joseph Froggatt ... co-chairmen for the dinner dance ... have announced that a week at the Golden Door will be given away that night ... and that favors in the golden theme ... will include a jar of the famous golden mask ... a golden perfume package from Bullocks ... and miniature wine cruets for the men ...

Tony Rose's Tennis Club orchestra will be augmented for the occasion ... While several notables have been invited as special guests ... there will be no speeches and no set program of entertainment ...

Pathfinders' president Mrs. S. P. Manasse said today ... that Pathfinders is a working group ... dedicated to relieving local child care needs ... and that it seems fitting that the "proceeds of the $25-a-plate benefit go in its entirety for the purpose for which it is raised ...

The Pathfinders held their meeting this week in the Palm Springs Boys Club ... which is one of the recipients of Pathfinders funds ... It was a luncheon meeting ... which ended with a surprise

... a birthday cake for President Margaret ...

Visiting royalty ... Prince Alexander Hohenlohe and his wife (the former Honeychile Wilder) ... were honored at a small and informal Sunday night party hosted by Ray Ryan ... It started out with champagne cocktails in Starlight Patio and joined the Twilight Buffet dance in the Silver Palm Room later ...

Col. and Mrs. C. J. Tippet (she's Liz Whitney) ... who were here for the weekend Rodeo ... were among the guests ... She was getting around with the aid of a crutch ... because she tripped with excitement and unaccustomed high heels ... when she headed for the winner's circle the day her horse Flatterer (Mr. Gus' offspring) won ... She tore the ligaments in her ankle and will be using that crutch for six months ... Her husband the Colonel ... who's an airman and a horseman remarked ... "Luckily we didn't have to destroy her" ...

It started a buzz when Esther Williams and her most frequent escort Fernando Lamas ... arrived with Taylor and Ernie Dunlevie ... for Nancy Holmes was there with John Morris ... Fernando is the ex-husband of Arlene Dahl ... who is now married to Nancy's ex-husband Chris Holmes ... There were a few tense minutes before Ray solved the problem sensibly ... by introducing Nancy and Fernando ... When Nancy murmured ... "we must be some kind of relation" ... I suggested ex-laws ... and it just may be a word we need in modern society ...

Two of the Crosby boys ... Dennis and Lin were there ... and the Hal Kemps of NBC came with Evelyn and Sydney Schiff ... who entertained the next night ... giving their annual anniversary party at the Racquet Club ... Edna (Mrs. Ed) Rothbart, who is just back from 10 days in Chicago (where she tramped through the snow in galoshes) was there ... and said Ivy Baker Priest (ex-Treasurer of the U.S.) is due here for a middle of February visit ... Also Mary Morrison and Betsy Duncan ...

Marchesa Lily Gerini arrived with an entourage which included Mary Dayton, Michael Hall (the decorator who exhibited in the show here) and Alex McDonald ... Plus Don Bollman ... a group of New Yorkers Yvonne Zweifel, Lee Edwards, Marco Allen and Fred Ermann ... John and Leslie Fitzgerald Carey ...

Later in the Silver Palm Room ... Bob Six and Mark Kramer showed up (LaVerne Smith was with Mark) ... and Bob Hope was in and out ... going to the Chi Chi with the visiting royalty ... to catch the Crosby show ...

Hints for Eating Your Way Cross Country on Motor Trip

By JEANNE LESEM
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — Eating your way cross-country can be hazardous.

A reader of my recent glowing report on regional cookery writes to complain of "the really horrible food you also can get in touring this country."

"Some short-order places along highways for example, serve some of the most over-cooked or under-cooked hamburgers the world has even seen, made from cheap meat and sometimes even spoiled meat. "Some of the things masquerading as salads or steaks or roast beef would turn any stomach."

The reader wants to know what the tourist can do to avoid pitomane taverns?

Try the picnic method—if you have plenty of room in the car.

And as a rule, buy each day only as much as you expect to consume that day.

Except on turnpikes or thruways, with the chain diners, you can find roadside groceries and farmers' markets, where shopping is both economical and quick. The fruit and vegetables are fresh. Most grocers keep soft drinks on ice, both in individual and quart bottles.

French or Italian style bread is a better buy for small groups than regular sliced sandwich loaves because there's less waste. And slices for sandwiches are no problem if your basic equipment includes a serrated-edge knife with a 5 or 6-in. blade.

Sliced cheese and cold cuts round out the main course. Packaged cookies with filling are good at a picnic and leftovers make a good afternoon snack.

Small cans of water-pack tuna and salmon are easy to eat and create no leftover problem. But avoid sardines and other salty foods, especially if your group includes habitually thirsty children.

Most hard cheeses keep well for two to three days without refrigeration if they are wrapped tightly in plastic or aluminum foil.

Stifle your thrifty instinct to keep any other perishable left-overs, unless you have portable refrigeration.

Basic utensils should be few and small. Stow them in an insulated plastic bag. Include can opener, bottle opener, all-purpose slicer, plastic forks and spoons, salt and pepper shakers, and individually packaged detergent-saturated paper towels for mopping up operations.

An immersion heater, plastic cups and plastic containers of sugar, powdered cream, instant coffee and tea (or teabags) and chocolate drink mix are handy if you plan to breakfast in your motel rooms on locally bought rolls or coffee cake. If you don't, skip reusable cups and buy only as many disposable paper products as you expect to use in a day or two.

Making your own picnic not only is economical — it is fun to select from the numerous roadside dining areas, complete with tables, benches and rubbish facilities.

Dusting the light bulbs should be included on the weekly cleaning agenda. A layer of dust dims their illuminating power. Keep them clean for maximum service by going over them with a sudsy sponge, suggests Mrs. Jerre Withrow, extension housing specialist at the University of Nebraska.

Fold linens by hand after ironing. Creases pressed in with an iron weaken the fibers and make them wear out faster.

Comfortable Plans for Older Folks

By JOYCE SCHULLER
United Press International
Chicago (UPI) — Home furnishings for older folks should be more comfortable than the conventional rocking chair.

Robert Greengoss, president of a company (Morton Textiles and Furniture of Chicago) which furnishes nursing homes for the elderly, said the deep recesses of the rocking chair or ultra-modern butterfly chair are back-breakers for older persons.

"They're difficult to get in and out of," he said. Older persons also have trouble getting up from modern armless chairs, he's found.

Here are some Greengoss suggestions for furnishing grandma's apartment:

Avoid stark, modern furniture or heavy period pieces. The elderly are unaccustomed to highly contemporary lines, but also dislike ornate mahogany pieces which are apt to make a room dreary and cheerless. They prefer a happy medium like Early American furniture in a cheery maple finish.

Beds should be low enough to get into and out of without strain and stress, and should have hospital springs because older persons are likely to be ill more often.

"Avoid throw rugs on floors since they become hazards to the elderly who do not lift their feet much when walking and may be more liable to trip.

Colors should be clear and contrasting and patterns simple and distinct to make it easier for fading eyesight to distinguish the beginning and end of a rug, the jutting outline of a fireplace or a chair's location. Bright colors are desirable, but never exotic or extreme ends. Most older persons are too conservative to live with bright red, for example.

Higher-than-usual coffee tables, chests and built-ins will save the elderly from painful bending and stooping.

Cheese Date Filling

NEW YORK (UPI) — Cream cheese date filling is delicious with warm gingerbread. Pit and slice 1/2 cup of fresh dates. Beat two 3-ounce packages of cream cheese until soft. Beat in 1/4 cup of orange marmalade and 1/4 teaspoon of salt. Fold in dates and 1/2 cup of whipping cream, stiffly beaten. Serve between and on top of squares of gingerbread cut from an 8-or-9-inch cake.

Two Easterners Honored at Cocktail-Buffer Party

Logs glowed in the fireplace in Tennis Club's Venetian Room Saturday night as Mrs. Ward Warner and Mrs. Karl Hosten of New York were honored at a cocktail buffet hosted by Mrs. Geri Fredericksen. The two easterners have been houseguesting with Joan McManus for a couple of months.

An elaborate buffet table was centered with pink wild roses and offered a wide assortment of dishes including bite-sized cubes of filet, shrimp, rumaki and caviar.

Guests included Dr. and Mrs. John Costello, Seymour Brown, Robert Morrey and Messrs. William Godfrey King, Culver Parker, Newell Blair from Sacramento and Michael Myers from Atherton, with their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hughes. Also, Mrs. Fredericksen's daughters, Miss Suzanne James with Jack Eaton and Mrs. William Bridgman, whose husband is famous test pilot in her best-selling biography, "The Lonely Sky" (Bill had to stay home in Pacific Palisades with a wrenched shoulder he acquired while skiing).

The Thornton Macgees were with their daughter, Mrs. Ann White from Riverside and the Ed Robbins were with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Tracy. Other guests were Mmes. Gwen Marcy, Kate Bernstein and Ruth Elder and Messrs. William Chin, Robert Flavin, Ed Dillon, Monte Warshawer and Tom Stryce, from Hawaii.

Loving Care Advised for Preservation of Fine China

Fine china, like children, patients and husbands, needs tender and loving care. And it needs use too, according to Mary Jane Forest, home economist for B. T. Babbitt Inc. celebrating its 125th year serving homemakers.

The advice comes from a booklet prepared by the company, in connection with a traveling exhibit of famous china used in the White House. The exhibit, called "First Lady's Choice," is for the inaugural year of the Kennedy administration.

Scientists have made vast strides in developing detergents, but it is housewifely art that preserves treasures.

"No one should clean fine china without first making certain that the bottom of the receptacle — pan or sink — is covered with a soft terry towel, rubber mat or plastic container," says Miss Forest. The booklet points out that one of America's great china experts has made the statement that a single chip from a plate reduced its resale value by some 35 per cent.

Wash and dry each piece individually. To preserve fine glazes, enamels and other decorations, place a paper napkin or sheet of wax paper between plates. Do not stack cups. Allow a space a third larger than the plates to avoid chipping.

The best way to store fine china? The finest dealers recommend that important china or glass be made a part of the decorative scheme of rooms in glassed cabinets and that it be used for important occasions in your home. But, Miss Forest points out, few collectors will let anyone else but themselves wash, dry and replace fine china.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The American kitchen is not designed for flexible packaging — not is flexible packaging designed for the American kitchen.

Result: Some consumer purchasing hesitancy, a great deal of consumer dissatisfaction with cello, poly, wax paper and foil bags which tumble, bend in the middle and spill their contents over shelves and onto floors, reports a San Francisco industrial design organization.

Fruit Pudding

Fruit cocktail pudding is easy to make. Sift together 1 cup each of sugar and sifted all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon of soda and 1/2 teaspoon of salt. Beat 1 egg well, add one 1-pound 14-ounce can of fruit cocktail including its syrup, and stir into dry mixture. Turn into greased 9-inch square baking pan. Sprinkle with 2-3 cup of brown sugar, packed, and 1/2 cup of chopped walnuts. Bake about 1 hour in a 350-degree oven. Cool in pan. Serve with whipped cream topping. Serves 9.

Shadow Mountain Club was aglow with gaiety and glitter with tumbledowns as 300 members and guests danced under a revolving mirrored ball at the 13th Annual Shadow Ball, Saturday night.

Valentine Candy Sale February 11

Plans for the Valentine Candy Sale, to be held Saturday, February 11, were completed at the meeting of Chi Theta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority held at the "F" Street home of Mrs. Anthony Janulis.

A workshop meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Rena Estel Friday night, February 10, at which time members will box the home made candy for the sale which will benefit Cystic Fibrosis.

Mrs. Wayne Kizer, newest member of Chi Theta, accepted the appointment of civil defense chairman for the group.

Program for the evening "Pleasures of Possession" was presented by Mrs. Ed Donahue. Her pleasure in possession was scrapbooks and albums of her son's activities from infancy through high school, which proved most interesting. Highlight of the program was a collection of spoons from all over the world loaned for the occasion by the possessor Mrs. John Stuber. Of particular interest was a set of spoons from Japan with each handle symbolizing a facet of daily life.

Others attending the meeting were, president Mrs. Ralph Hammer, Mrs. Pete Breakey, Mrs. John Down, Mrs. Ray Hayes, Mrs. Harry Estel and Mrs. Al Patane.

A theme of "Moonlight and Shadows" was carried out as the tumbledowns, sprayed with silver and flecked with glitter, gave a moonlight effect under the pastel-colored lights and the mirrored ball reflected kaleidoscopic shadows upon the rafters, dance floor and couples waltzing to the romantic music of Jack Kern's band. Frosty silver and blue helium-filled balloons covered the ceiling and each table was centered with a silver-sprayed and glittering container, filled with sparkling sand which held a hurricane lamp and a blue candle.

The gala evening was complemented with a gourmet dinner featuring New York sirloin steak served with petit pois paysanne (creamed onion sauce), preceded by shrimp cocktail, consommé celestine (chicken broth with egg noodles), and princess salad (asparagus and pimiento).

Following dinner, the guests joined social director, Thirza Shenk in community singing and a happy birthday salute to Shar Cracraft, complete with a beautiful cake and re-lighting candles so that Shar huffed and puffed at with no success.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Thompson (she was ball chairman) who hosted a table for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sorenson, Dr. and Mrs. Roy McCall, Mrs. Laurence Cormarsh of Sacramento, Mrs. Jacob O. Mail and Colonel Joseph P. Westerfield with Mrs. Lillie McIntyre. Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Henderson had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. John McConaty of Brentwood and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Tomson of Malibu. The Bill Newells were with the Ed Littles from Indio and the Earl Bacons of Manhattan Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Craig of Los Angeles were with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Meyler of Rancho Mirage.

Among others were Messrs. and Mmes. Virgil Smith, Stephen Chase IV, Dick Coffin and L. C. Lewis. Dr. and Mrs. Edward Ruge hosted Messrs. and Mmes. Telford Thronson, Howard Robinson and John R. Botsford and at another table Dr. and Mrs. George Munns were with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowe and John Wallace from Toyota.

World's Her Oyster
WILMINGTON, Del. (UPI) — A Wilmington woman has every right to shout "The world's my oyster." She found a pearl in her dinner oyster.

Mrs. Rose Sarro seemed most amazed by the failure of oyster processors to discover the tiny pearl before it reached her dinner table. The pearl was described as about one-quarter inch in diameter and slightly flat on one side. The woman purchased the oysters in a local supermarket.

CELEBRATING their 15th wedding anniversary, the Sydney Schiffs hosted a dinner dance party that took over the main dining-room at Racquet Club Monday night. ## Host Anniversary Party

Taking over the main dining-room of Racquet Club Monday night, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Schiff, of Palm Springs and Chicago, entertained around 70 friends at a dinner dance, which started out with cocktails in the Mural Room.

An elaborate buffet which included shrimp and crab and platters of smoked turkey, was provided for the cocktail hour.

Red carnation arrangements were used with the candles on the pink covered tables, ranged around the dance floor, where guests danced to the music of the Racquet Club orchestra, between courses of a delicious steak dinner.

Guests at the party which celebrated the Schiffs' 15th wedding anniversary, included: Judge and Mrs. Ryan, and Gussie Moran was among the guests.

Others included: The Earl Buckinham, Co. Thorntons, Ernie Youngs, Richard Bagdasarians, M. C. Eatons, Frank Hoys, Chauncey Youngs, Richard Bagdasarians, M. C. Eatons, Frank Hoys, Chauncey Needhams, Mrs. Paul William

Spend Weekend at Monkey Tree

Dale and Lorin Rowley's Monkey Tree was a particularly happy place last weekend as Dale was up and about after a week's stay at Desert Hospital and another in convalescence at home. Among the guests Mr. Rowley enjoyed visiting with were the Steward Curetons from Santa Cruz (they're here for a prolonged stay) and the Robert Jeffries and Don Frames with their daughter, Zandra from garden Grove. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rogers, Sr., Mrs. Kathryn R. Wood and daughter, Virginia and James Tracy all of Hollywood.

A group of young ladies included Misses Joan Stevens, Barbara Drohan, Rachel Kehrberg, Joan Kennedy and Judy Wilsey all from Los Angeles.

Up in the World

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—Mrs. O. M. Gowan's cats live in a "penthouse."

The cats loved to scamper about on top of the roof so much that Mrs. Gowan's husband finally built them a "trash can" house there.

Tart and Tangy Combination

Blue cheese and pineapple make tart and tangy muffins. Sift together 2 cups of flour, 1 tablespoon of baking powder, and 1/2 teaspoon each of baking soda and salt. Stir 1 cup of buttermilk into 1 egg, well beaten. Add liquid to dry ingredients, along with 2 tablespoons of melted butter, 3/4 cup of crumbled blue cheese (about 4 ounces) and 1/4 cup of well-drained crushed pineapple. Mix only until flour is moistened. Fill medium size buttered muffin pans about 2-3 full. Bake in a 400-degree oven 12 to 15 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 14 to 16 muffins.

Fruited Cereal

Fruited cereal makes a standard breakfast into something special. Combine 4 cups of bite-size shredded rice biscuits with 2 medium bananas, sliced. Toss lightly. Top with 1 (6-ounce) can of frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed and serve with light or dark corn syrup. Serves 4.

Home Buyers Demanding More Bedrooms

Home buyers of the 1960's are more interested in bedrooms than in pushbutton kitchens.

This is a finding of the Branden Construction Co., which built nearly 1,000 homes in Northern California last year after putting up thousands in the 1950's.

In a recent report to the National Homebuilders Association Branden said home-buyers in the late 1940's and 1950's were interested mainly in fancy kitchens with built-in appliances. Now a trend to more bedrooms seems to be starting.

"The demand for more bedrooms is spearheaded by veterans of the Korean conflict who are buying 62 per cent of the GI home production," a company spokesman said.

Buyers want a more elaborate master bedroom suite with built-in bath as a retreat to "get away from it all," according to the report.

To blanch almonds, pour boiling water over them and allow them to stand for a few minutes. Drain and remove skin by rubbing them with the fingers.

Heroic Task

OZARK, Ark. (UPI) — Mrs. Bob Adams was too busy with her troop of Brownies — a junior Girl Scout organization — to take over the leadership of the Girl Scouts.

When no other woman could be found to do the job, Mrs. Adams' husband agreed to add the chore to his duties as agriculture teacher at the high school here. The headline in the weekly Ozark Spectator read: "Heroic Ozark Man Takes Over Girl Scouts."

ALMANAC

By United Press International.
Today is Wednesday, Feb. 1, the 32nd day of the year with 333 more in 1961.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

On this day in history:
In 1790, the Supreme Court held its first session, meeting in the Royal Exchange Building in New York City.

In 1861, Texas voted to secede from the Union.

In 1892, Mrs. William Astor gave a ball at her New York town house—limited to 400 guests. It marked the beginning of the social term, "The Four Hundred."

In 1933, Adolf Hitler, the new chancellor of Germany, issued an order dissolving the Reichstag.

In 1956, Auerhine Lucy, 26-year-old student, became the first Negro admitted to the University of Alabama on a federal court order.

Thought for Today: American writer James Russell Lowell said: "Folks never understand the folks they hate."

Third Suspect In Fatal Attack Jailed in Indio

INDIO — Sheriff's officers here found 49-year-old Eusebio G. Murillo, third suspect in the Saturday fatal beating of 38-year-old Felix Eandoval Esparza, in an El Centro hospital Monday.

Ironically, the suspect had driven to Calexico after the Saturday morning post-party fatal fight, and apparently was returning here when he was injured in a traffic accident in El Centro. He was due for hospital release when located by sheriff's officers of Imperial county, who had been alerted by the Indio office of the Riverside county sheriff's office.

In custody Saturday were Jose Mares, 49, and Ignacio Rodriguez, 47, both of a farm labor camp on Highway 99 near here. Sheriff's investigators reported the fight which ended in the fence-post beating of the deceased Esparza apparently occurred between 3 and 3:30 a.m. Saturday, after a marathon party involving drinking. Esparza died in Casita Hospital at 10:15 a.m. Saturday.

JEREMY CROCKER IS 'MEMBER'

UCLA Prof Has Science 'Team'

"I'm coaching a scientific football team and I want to develop a few great players. That'll mean as much to me as discovering an important scientific principle."

The "coach" is Prof. Willard F. Libby of UCLA, the 1960 Nobel Prize winner for Chemistry, and a world-famous atomic scientist, and one of his students is Jeremy Crocker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Crocker.

AMONG SCIENTISTS, Dr. Libby is best known as a research man, the discoverer of the carbon 14 "time clock" method, which can date the age or organic remains 50,000 years old. But to 79 students at UCLA, he is mainly a professor who draws diagrams on blackboards, assigns homework, and even gives examinations.

To Dr. Libby, one role complements the other, and he has some very definite ideas on his job as a teacher.

"I WANT TO stretch the student's mind to his utmost capacity, to make him tackle something which nobody has ever done before, to hold up the promise of great accomplishment."

"My best students start on their own laboratory research projects as soon as they enter the University, because you can no more become a great scientist purely by reading textbooks than a master violinist by studying musical theory."

"THERE ARE ONLY a handful of top researchers in this country, and we have been living off the brains of great refugee scientists—Einstein, Fermi, Teller, von Karman, Von Neumann, to name a few. Now we must produce our own research men and if I can help develop ten of them, I'll have done something important."

"Besides top researchers, I'd like our universities to produce such a surplus of scientists, that some will spill over into government, business and newspaper work."

Dr. Libby teaches a class in physical chemistry and another in nuclear chemistry. He is keeping

Edward R. Murrow, who takes his "good night — and good luck" to the United States Information Agency from CBS, is leaving undone a "CBS Reports" documentary about the Quemoy-Matsu islands off the China coast. Scheduled for filming last November and then postponed because of Murrow's illness, the entire project now may be shelved.

Will "Sugarfoot" Hutchins portray a flagpole sitter when he guest stars on ABC-TV's "Roaring 20s" for Saturday, Feb. 25... Pat McGowan stars in "Danger Man," the foreign intrigue series that replaces "Wanted — Dead or Alive," on CBS-TV starting Wednesday, April 5. McGowan will portray a free-lance special security agent.

"Whispering Smith," a series about a police officer, with Audie Murphy in the title role, is expected to take over a nighttime slot on NBC-TV sometime in April.

Prof. Henry Steele Commager of Amherst College is the featured subject when "Meet the Professor" makes its debut next Sunday on ABC-TV.

50 Magazines in Library Here

By LILLIAN RISING
In today's world of rapid change and expansion into space, magazines have become increasingly important for late information. Welwood Murray Memorial Library subscribes to over 50 magazines. The latest issue of each magazine is kept for use in the library only.

Earlier issues, still late enough to be of general interest, may be borrowed from the library. At least six months of the monthly magazines and three months of the weeklies are kept in the Magazine Section of the Library. Most of the older issues are in the Reference Section.

MOST OF OUR magazines are indexed in Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature. Through Readers' Guide back files of magazines are made usable and become a valuable source of information. We have back files of a number of magazines, some going back to 1941 and 1942, a few back even further.

Because magazines are so easily lost and since old magazines are almost impossible to replace, most of our older magazines are for use in the library only. Older magazines on the shelves in the Magazine Section may be borrowed.

IN ADDITION to the magazines for which we subscribe, we have a number of magazines given to us. Included in these gifts are several yearly subscriptions which are sent directly to us. Occasionally we receive a file of a year or more of a magazine. Since our

Spaak Resigns Post with NATO

PARIS 11 — Paul-Henri Spaak has resigned as secretary general of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to return to political life in Belgium.

The former Belgian premier called a meeting of the 15 NATO ambassadors in his office this morning and read his resignation statement. He has been secretary general since 1957.

Best Deal on the Desert

SR Fifteen minutes from Palm Springs, out of the valley winds is a unique controlled development, the only desert community where you can build a small winter or retirement home and be sure of having the right kind of neighbors. It is owned by Charles Doyle, the original owner and creator of Smoke Tree Ranch. Existing 20 owners are retired Air Force and Navy Officers, doctors, engineers and business executives. Economy with status. Build your own home or buy a 2 bedroom, 720-800 square foot home for $4997 to 5900. No more need to buy a $3,000 lot. 99 year leases only $12 a month. magazines are used so much they often become tattered and worn. We fortunately receive fresh gift copies of a number of magazines which we can use to replace our worn issues.

In the last few months, your Public Library has added a number of magazines to its subscription list. Several of these are in the field of science. One of them, Aviation Week and Space Technology, is devoted to new developments in flying and space.

THIS MCGRAW-HILL publication includes articles on business flying, air transport, space technology and missile and aeronautical engineering. The many illustrations add much to the value of the magazine. Of these new additions, the one which has caused most comment is Natural History incorporating Nature Magazine. Its scope is evidenced in a sampling of articles to be found in the January 1961 issue: "Last Great Herds of Africa," "Steps Toward the Atom," and "Man against the Cold."

Fascinating illustrations enhance the captivating articles of this Journal of the American Museum of Natural History. A map of the sky for the month is included in Sky Reporter, one of the regular

Forgery Charge Jails Woman, 31

A warrant charging the issuance of at least $8,621 worth of fraudulent checks here last fall was issued in Palm Springs justice court Monday against 31-year-old Terry Lee Fette, of Palm Springs and El Cajon.

The warrant, setting $10,000 bail, is on charges that Mrs. Fette issued forged checks against the Westlake Building Company here from August through December, 1960. The checks were deposited to "Margaret Green," and then funds withdrawn to a joint account of Mrs. Fette and her husband.

An additional $8,000 worth of checks handled by Mrs. Fette are being studied by handwriting experts, on suspicion of possible forgery.

departments of the magazine. A paper by a young scientist is printed in Young Scientist, another department.

ANOTHER FINE magazine long enjoyed by those interested in science, but new to our shelves is Scientific American. It has authoritative articles on all branches of science. A recent issue includes the following articles: "Light and Plant Development," "Air - traffic Control," and "Minerals on the Ocean Floor."

Among the special departments which appear every month are Science and the Citizen, Mathematical Games, and Amateur Scientist. The many fine illustrations, a few of them in color, are an integral part of each month's issue.

THE ARTS ARE represented also in the magazines new to our shelves. We have heard several pleased comments on the inclusion of Musical America. Those interested in art will enjoy Design: The Magazine of Creative Art. This delightful magazine is full of illustrations.

In addition to articles on artists, art techniques and the business side of art, are descriptions of interesting projects in different, sometimes unusual medium, such as melted crayon art, and sponge and starch painting. Another art magazine new to the library is Industrial Arts and Vocational Education, which includes articles for the educator in these fields. Each issue includes at least half a dozen projects with graphic illustrations and diagrams.

Camera fans will be glad to know that we are now taking Modern Photography. Other new additions are Recreation, Vital Speeches, Commonwealth, Travel, and Americas. All these magazines recently added are indexed in Readers' Guide.

Ben-Gurion Quits Two Israel Posts

TEL AVIV, Israel 11—Premier David Ben-Gurion, 74, resigned tonight.

The Israeli leader quit both as prime minister and defense minister.

The resignation marked the second time that Ben-Gurion publicly has bowed out of public office since the founding of the Jewish state in 1948.

There were 9,893 registered civil and commercial aircraft in the U. S. at the end of 1958, nearly 452 per cent more than at the end of 1940.

MANNINGTON SAYS:

Adult Education's New Term Begins

The Palm Springs Adult Evening High School has announced the start of its second semester and the opening of certain classes for increases in students.

High School Principal George Mannington said that the start of the second semester signals an opportunity to enroll in existing classes, classes which for the most part are continuing on from the first semester studies.

Good opportunity is available in commercial subjects right now, including a new class starting next Tuesday in Stenograph ABC Shorthand.

This shorthand is a simplified system which enables a person to attain a speed of 80 to 100 words a minute after just one semester of study.

Advanced Gregg shorthand classes, formerly held on Tuesdays, will be switched to Thursday nights, and new students can enroll in this class.

Pamphlets are available which list all the subjects available at night school, and can be obtained from the Chamber of Commerce, library, or offices of the school district.

NIGHT WALKS CAN BE SAFE

When walking on the highway at night wear light colored clothing, carry a white handkerchief or use a flashlight, the safety slogan for the week warns students in the Palm Springs Unified School District.

Students repeat the slogan on boarding and leaving busses daily.
